Rick McKellips, Fire Chief reported that all is good with the Department. "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year".

Mark McKellips of the Cemetery Board also reported all is good.

Don Nagel of the Ambulance Board stated he has a meeting on Dec. 9, 2010 and will have a contract and a report next month.

Glen Alderink of the Fire Board reported that the Fire audit is done and will have a report for our next meeting.

Bernie McLeod of the Transfer Station reported all is good.

Marlynn Starring introduced Donna Matula. Donna is our new library representative. The library has a new roof, four new public computers and e-video books are also now available.

Supervisor Giles stated that this has been a good year. The elections went well. The fire and ambulance services have been heavy. The Board is very thankful to all of our committees. Giles is personally thankful for everybody and everything that is done to support our township. This is our 18th year of Holiday cookies and punch. Giles invited everybody to stay and enjoy following the meeting.

Public Comments: Judge Bailgeron thanked everyone for their support and presented the Board with a tin of cookies. "Merry Christmas".

No further business. A motion by Larsen, supported by McLeod, we adjourn.
